THE 1966 APACHE

Tyler Junior College
Tyler, Texas

ALMA MATER

All Apaches, men and maidens
Raise your voices high
Till the echoes heavy laden
Swell up to the sky!
On to Honor! On to Glory!
On to victory!
Hail to thee our Alma Mater
Hail to T-J-C

FIGHT SONG

Sons of Black and Gold
Will you let the foe
Take from us the victory?
Hear our warriors chorus,
Sweep that line before us
Carry on to victory.

Onward, onward—
Charge against the foe.
Forward, forward—
Apache banners go.
Sons of Mars and Thunder
Rip that line asunder
Carry on to victory.

"Nor has the day
been limited. it has a natural balance of physical, intellectual, and social life. It has an easy
unforced rhythm."

GIFT FROM THE SEA,
Anne M. Lindbergh

With sincere admiration and appreciation
the 1966 Apache
is dedicated to TJC's librarians.

THE MAIN BUILDING—In the Main building are housed all of the business offices, the library, biology, chemistry, physics and language laboratories, various special rooms, and many of the academic classrooms. The stately colonial design gives TJC part of its claim as one of the most beautiful campuses in the state.

WISE AUDITORIUM—FINE ARTS BUILDING—Erected from the proceeds of a bond issue and a substantial gift from Watson W. Wise, president of the board of trustees, this building includes an auditorium, and special rooms for music, art and speech arts.

ACADEMIC BUILDING—This modern building, completed in 1963, contains classrooms, offices, laboratories and other special facilities.

THOUGHT PROVOKING PLAQUE—This plaque in the Fine Arts Building inspires students entering the building.

COLUMNS—These stately columns are part of the entrance to the Main Building.

GENTRY GYM—Women physical education students use this modern gymnasium for indoor sports. The gym is also used for various other programs and events throughout the year.

RAMEY TOWER—With its spire standing out against the sky, Ramey Tower is one of TJC's spots of tradition. Each time the tribe wins a football or basketball contest, the usual white lights that fill the tower turn to a bright gold. Following a defeat, the lights are extinguished. Judge Thomas Ramey donated the tower to the college in 1956.

TECHNOLOGY BUILDING—The old tech building, which for years has furnished special classrooms and laboratories for instruction in petroleum technology, surveying, electronics and drafting, was on its last legs in that capacity. When the new building is completed, the old Tech Building will be re-modeled for use by other departments.

FUTURE TECH BUILDING
—When this new modern building is completed, it will house all of the departments previously in the old tech building, plus others like the electronic data processing department. Work on the building, located adjacent to the Apache Gym, began in the early fall.

APACHE GYM—This modern fully - equipped gymnasium provides space for the men's physical education classes plus athletic events and general programs. Only this year a new sound and acoustical system was added to the gym which was completed in 1963.

WIN, YA'LL—Lena Exum, Southern-style English instructor, cheers on her "li'l ole" team.

WHAT ARE WE SUPPOSED TO BE TALKING ABOUT?—Egghead Coach Marjorie Coulter and teammates prepare to go onto the court. Team members are Joseph Kirshbaum, Clarence Strickland, Norman Ferguson, Herb Richardson, Ken Lewis and Bob Osborne.

Faculty has a ball . . .

FIT AS A FIDDLE—Joseph Kershbaum relaxes the Egghead team with violin music. Whether it was because the music worked its charms or just pure-dee skill, the Eggheads won, 7-2.

THROWING IN THE TOWEL—Mary Burton, coach of the Swingers, literally throws in the towel as her team makes a "boo-boo."

RAH, PANT, RAH—Emma Lou Prater tries for a second breath as she gives cheerleading a try. Terry Stillabower doesn't disguise his amusement.

SO IT'S NOT THE TEEPEE!—The coffee tastes the same. Faculty members find a leisurely cup of coffee in the home economics lab is a needed refresher after a morning of classes. Exchanging "coffee-break talk" are English Instructors Barbara McDaniel and Mary Waldrop. Lena Exum takes a sip of the hot brew. Other instructors taking part in the coffee hour are Pauline Pynes, Herb Richardson and Mabel Williams.

WHAT MORE CAN A MAN ASK FOR?—Food, and a bevy of girls to boot! Sophomore Don Dunn "has it made" at the Baptist Student Union Back-To-School Social in September.

CAMPUS LIFE

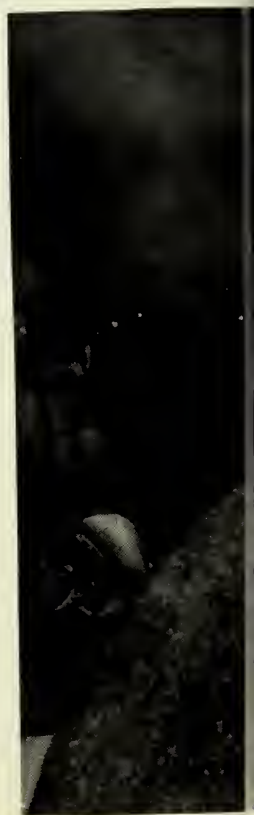

Faces mirror

INFLUENCE BY THE BEATLES—Julie Brelsford, wearing the long bangs popularized by English singing groups, pauses for a meditative thought.

phases of campus life

GO, APACHES!—Basketball fans go all out cheering the Tribe at TJC field house.

WONDER WHAT HE'S HEARING!—Bob Osborne listens intently to a lesson in language. Students use earphones and tape recorders set up in individual booths to learn to "say" as well as "know" foreign languages.

Courses, labs demand hours

TO STUDY OR NOT TO STUDY—That is one of the problems facing college students and Linda Blanchard has decided in the affirmative. Here she concentrates on an assignment in the library.

LABORING IN THE LAB—Biology lab students work on a dissecting project. All science students are required to take a weekly lab.

A STUDY IN CONCENTRATION—Freshman Karl Friedrich concentrates on an assignment in journalism lab. Like scores of other journalism students armed with pencils, copy paper, and typewriters, Friedrich used lab hours for writing stories, headlines, and cutlines for the TJC Pow Wow and local newspapers.

IF THE HAT FITS—Yvette seems to think maybe she needs another size as she adjusts an Apache Belle hat. Sophomore from Orange David Chambers listens sympathetically while Belle members Ginny Stanley and Cheri McGinney smile at the problem.

Actress Yvette Mimieux visits TJC

A STORY ABOUT ME?—Yvette scans a newspaper article about her arrival in Tyler before autographing the paper for Barbara Green and Ginny Stanley.

Film actress Miss Yvette Mimieux was greeted by Apache Band and Belles when she arrived at Pounds Field airport September 23.

Band, Belles and students welcomed the blonde starlet to the TJC campus at a program in the TeePee.

Miss Mimieux stopped in Tyler during a five-day publicity tour for her new film, "The Reward," a contemporary drama produced by 20th Century Fox. During the Texas tour she also appeared in Austin, Dallas, and Houston.

This is Spirit . . .

AN APPLE A DAY—Apples may not keep the doctor away, but Apache Band Princess Pam Griggs finds they do give her the vitality needed to lead the band.

STRATEGIC STRATEGY—Coach Babe Hallmark advises Larry Tilton on a gridiron play.

EMBRACING THE WORLD—Freshman Cheerleader Vickie Britton gives an enthusiastic all-embracing gesture as she helps lead a cheer.

FORTY WINKS—Apache Belles catch a cat nap as they return from a road trip by bus. While some sit and watch the traffic pass, others find "putting their feet up" is better than "putting their heads down."

SEE ANYONE FAMILIAR?—Students and other spectators line the City Square and streets waiting for the Apache Homecoming Parade featuring the Apache Belles and Band, Queen nominees, and school officials.

Sherry Tucker reigns over Home

NOT A CHANCE—Apache Guards John Pierce and Richard Reese "support" a battered figure of a Kilgore Ranger.

TJC's Homecoming activities began 1 a.m., October 14, with the Apache Guards' annual tom-tom marathon, and ended with the Homecoming Dance, 1 a.m., October 17.

Other activities included a pep rally, a bonfire, the Tyler-Kilgore football game, Homecoming and Rose Festival parades, and the election and presentation of the Homecoming Queen and honor court.

Sherry Tucker, Center Hall's nominee from Hawkins, was selected Queen. Lynda Peoples of Dallas, Kappa Sigma Lambda Fraternity, and Peggy Crow of Tyler, Cheerleaders, were chosen princesses.

Duchesses with their hometowns and organizations were Shirley McClain of Tyler, Sans Souci; Pam Lindley of Tyler, Home Economics Club; Teri Buchanan of Waco, Pow Wow; Fredda Moore of Troup, Apache Belles; Freya Hunker of Dallas, Apache Yearbook; Sandra Coyle of Rowlett, Alpha Delta Chi; Jan Godfrey of Tyler, Student Senate; Joan Pederson of Tyler, Debate Club; Jennie Northcutt of Frankston, Las Mascaras; Darlene Sims of Lufkin, To-Kalon; Beverly Green of Tyler, Rodeo Club; Betty Jane Kniffen of Tyler, Sigma Sigma; Mary Jane Kiser of Whitehouse, Drafting Club; Karen Wilkerson of Austin, Apache Guard; Carol Mings of Tyler, Phi Theta Kappa; Nancy Edwards of Dallas, Apache Band; Gipsy Howard of Hawkins, Vaughn Hall; Carol Hensley of Midland, Claridge Dorm; and Maria Botello of Tyler, Texas Eastern School of Nursing.

QUEEN FOR THREE DAYS—Homecoming Queen Sherry Tucker, freshman from Hawkins, presided over the three-day homecoming events. The bubbly red-haired beauty was announced queen at a pep rally at the Tyler Court House. She was the nominee of Center Hall, boy's dormitory. Besides leading in the homecoming activities, Miss Tucker and her two princesses, Lynda Peoples and Peggy Crow, rode on the Tyler Chamber of Commerce float in the Texas Rose Festival Parade.

A ROYAL LINE-UP—Nominees for homecoming queen form a line as they are introduced to a pep rally crowd. Miss Tucker (third from right) was named Queen.

THE FLAME OF SPIRIT—Cheerleaders Vickie Britton and Peggy Crow stand before the homecoming bonfire in a special study of a night lit by flames—flames of fire and flames of hope and spirit for the homecoming period.

LIGHT AND FIGHT—While the bonfire lights the night with its special type of homecoming warmth, Head Cheerleader Bennie Ellis leads the fighting Apaches in a yell.

Spirit rules supreme at ME, FRIENDLY APACHE, UGH!—Freshman Don Flowers, Apache "Indian" with the Apache Guard Association, is a colorful figure as he joins in with homecoming spirit.

KHOU-TV tapes Band, Belles for

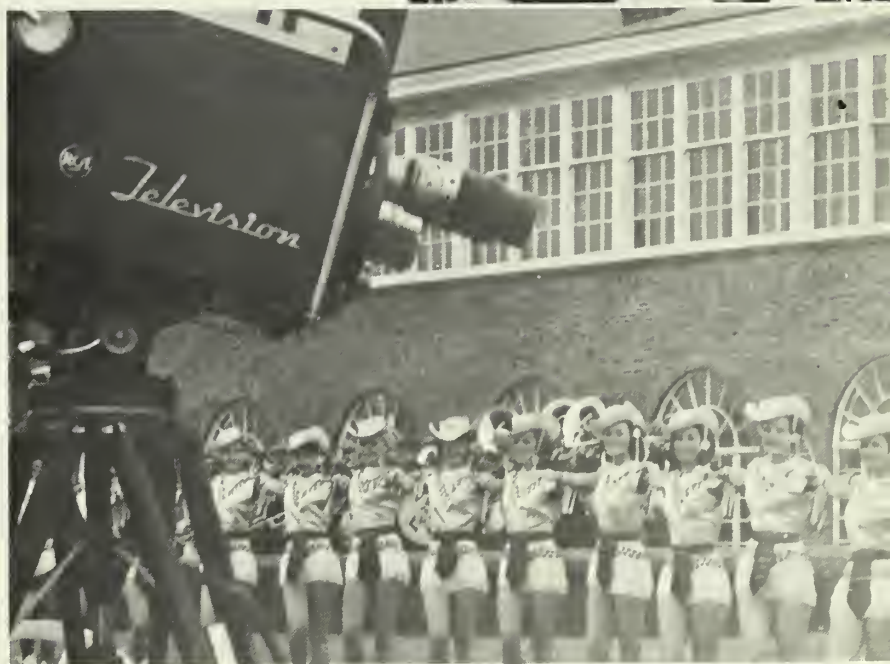

I'M SITTING ON TOP OF THE WORLD—Camera-men filming the Talent '66 television show had reason to "sing a song" as they watched the beautiful gold and white clad Belles perform a skirt and kick routine for the college talent show televised over Texas in the early spring. Band members in the background taped the music in Dallas prior to the filming and then "played pretend" for the cameramen. TJC was the only junior college represented in the show.

PRIMPIN' PRETTY—Tyler freshman Charlotte Neighbors applies last minute "finishing touches" before going in front of the cameras.

ALL POSED AND READY—Apache Belles pose before the camera for the opening shot of the session, and six long hours of tedious filming before the final takes were made.

Barbara Green is crowned "Most"

TIME OUT—Judges pause for refreshments after interviewing each of the beauty contestants. They are Mrs. Jim Swink, former Miss Texas, and Mr. and Mrs. Merrell Frazer, experienced beauty judges.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN—Ken Carter, TJC sophomore and local radio disc jockey, had the "task" of announcing the beauties at the annual Beauty Contest.

THE HEAD AMONG HEADS—Queen Barbara Green awaits with the other girls backstage while the judges retire to make their final decisions.

Beautiful"

ROSES FOR A ROSE CITY BEAUTY—Student Senate President Vance Burnham presents a bouquet of roses to Barbara Green, Tyler sophomore, crowned Most Beautiful Girl on Campus at the annual TJC Apache-yearbook sponsored contest. Miss Green, a slender blue-eyed brunette won the contest as a representative of Phi Theta Kappa, national junior college honor society.

PRICE OF EDUCATION—Freshman Sheila Hart is one of the countless collegians who will find that the cost of education in terms of money is not nearly so much as the price the uneducated must make in every day living. Fiscal Dean Richard Barrett fills out the tuition receipt.

Students register for spring semester

THE SHOW MUST GO ON—Apache Belle Chief Eva Saunders reaches for the errant skirt of Belle Iris Prater during the dedication ceremonies of the T. B. Butler Fountains January 28, in downtown Tyler.

While the band played "The Saints Go Marching In," while the Governor of Texas watched, while hundreds gasped, Iris Prater lost her skirt . . . but not her poise. The Tyler freshman laughed tears and kept going. Transmitted to the Associated Press in Dallas, this picture, captured by Photographer Jerry Arnold, ran in a dozen major Texas dailies following the incident.

Iris loses her skirt, but not her poise

OOH, IT HURTS—Sophomore Vern Lewis grimaces as he rubs a swelling ankle injured during an Apache basketball game. Lewis had his leg wrapped in ice but refused to leave the floor. Instead, he propped the leg on a chair and sat on the sidelines cheering his team on in true Apache fashion.

Fighting Spirit . . .

A REAL SNOW BALL—Mary Morphis, Charles Golenternek and Edwina Powell have a "ball" amid the falling snow.

READY, AIM—Two students meet in an impromptu snowball fight between classes. The snow prompted plenty of snowball fights, ducking and snow sculpture by the more creative.

DOUBLE FEATURE—Keyed up spirits at the Apache-Kilgore basketball game resulted in an extra on-court contest. Here Vern Lewis tries to loosen the hold a Ranger has on Don McCorkle. Referees quickly broke up the skirmish and the game proceeded smoothly with TJC winning.

BABY, IT'S COLD OUTSIDE—Students find that snow and slush look pretty but really do little in the way of keeping feet dry and warm,

It's "snow" fooling . . .

SNOW QUEEN—This lovely lady ruled over the campus when the "white stuff" fell in February.

CHECKING THEIR GUNS—Ronnie Skaggs and John Palmer check their guns with Pat Malone before the shooting match begins.

IF I MISS JUST RIGHT—Maybe, I'll get a free coke. Two gun slinger's shoot it out in the fast draw contest won by Ty Thomas.

NOTCH NUMBER ONE—Bob Burney raises his gun for a "shot" in the quick draw contest.

QUEEN OF HEARTS—Sophomore Jim Connally a "real cowhand from TJC land," shuffles through his special deck of cards.

Reservation

ON YOUR MARK, FIRE—Jim Smutts fans his "shooting iron" in the Teepee Contest.

RENEGADE ON THE RANCH—Von Cox donned an Indian head band for the three days of western wear.

MEANWHILE, BACK AT THE TEEPEE—Cowboys lounge in the student center watching the contests. Robbie Robinson won the heaviest beard contest and Mike Harris, the "coolest-looking beard" contest.

PRETEND THE TARGET IS WHO?—Mike Chambers tries his hand in the fast draw contest.

Kappa Sigma Lambda Fraternity

Kappa Sigma Lambda Fraternity proudly displays an atmosphere of brotherhood and also renders numerous services to the student body of Tyler Junior College. Activities begin early in the fall semester when the fraternity accepts pledges.

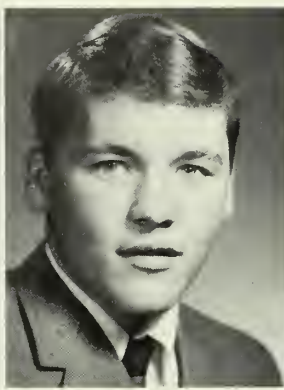

Homecoming closely follows these activities, and Kappa Sigma Lambda undertakes the job of building the annual homecoming bonfire.

The arrival of the new semester brings open rush, and new pledges are accepted into the fraternity. In February Kappa Sigma Lambda is the sponsor of a three day "Western Week." The highlights include beard-growing, cigarette-rolling, and quick-draw contests, and an informal dance in the Teepee. Students are asked to wear western clothing or pay the consequences—a jail sentence and a ten cent fine.

Kappa Sigma Lambda makes up part of the college life for many male students and contributes to many worthwhile projects for improving the image of Tyler Junior College.

PRELIMINARY PLANNING—Ken Thompson, Janet Malloy and Mike Douglas, sophomore staff members, sort through pictures to be used in the Apache.

PAPER WORK—Business Manager Judi Fitzhugh works on the business end of the yearbook.

SAY WHAT?—Whether the subject says "cheese" or simply smiles, Photographer Steve Fisch takes hundreds of pictures.

IT'S A SURPRISE TO ME—Freshmen Daniel Harris, Larry Stephens, and Freya Hunker study the layout plans of the 1965 Apache.

TEEPEE TEST TOAST—A right answer on a pop test won a bet for sophomore journalism students and the instructor paid off with drinks in the Teepee. But Mrs. Prejean had the last say and along with the cokes and coffee, students were given another test. Giving a mock toast are Anne Patterson, Mary Morphis, Tom Weiser, Fredda Moore, Blanche Prejean, David Widener, Hugh Fant, Winston Green, Mike Hoffpavir, Steve Claggett, Wanda Newsome, and Dana Hall.

CONSULTATION PERIOD—Tom Weiser consults with Instructor Blanche Prejean about news story techniques. At the same time, Winston Green takes the facts for another article over the telephone. Because of the large number of staff members (some 70 in all), it is not uncommon to find several in the office at one time working on different phases of "putting the paper to bed."

DIGGIN' UP THE FACTS—Dana Hall, Hugh Fant, and Wanda Newsome check through the clippings and back issues in the file room as they gather information to make their stories accurate, newsworthy, and interesting.

THEY MAKE THE POW WOW POSSIBLE—The advertisements that Business Managers Mike Johnson and Bennie Ellis sell, and plan make it possible for the staff to print 14 issues each school year.

Pow Wow

ALL THIS IS JOURNALISM, TOO—Gathering the facts and writing the stories are just the beginning of putting the paper together. Sports Editor David Widener makes up a page and assigns headline sizes to Steve Claggett and Freda Moore.

WATER, WATER EVERYWHERE—Dickie Whipple and Terry Don Waters repair a hose at the club's car wash.

FRIENDLY MAIDENS—Members of To-Kalon Sorority are: (top to bottom) Pegi Gant, Jane Nall, Becky Rydberg, Sandra Coyle, Eloise Raskin, Carol Johnson, Charlene Thompson, Susan Lowrimore, Jan Jeskey, Pam Hearn, Cindy Landwermyer, Elaine Burgess, Francis Clines, Darlene Sims, Janet Blair, Janice Butt, Rene Kemp, Angene Kennedy, Nancy Edwards, Anita Lee, Carol Hickerson, and Jo Nora Cates.

To-Kalon Sorority, organized in 1927, is the oldest Sorority on the TJC campus. Its name is derived from an Indian phrase meaning "Friendly Maiden." The sorority is symbolized by the red rose and its colors—red and white.

T-K aims toward a devoted sisterhood and a happy medium between civic and social activities. The social aim is the entertainment of its members and fellow students, and the civic aim is the betterment of Tyler Junior College and Tyler.

To-Kalon proudly works hand-in-hand with its brother fraternity, Alpha Delta Chi, throughout the year. They sponsored an all-college Christmas dance, a casual party in March, three bingo games, and an all-college picnic. The organizations were also civically active, sponsoring parties for the children of the tuberculosis hospital, giving an Easter Egg hunt for retarded children, and taking part in the Crippled Children's and Cancer Drives.

BUT SOMETIMES IT'S FORMAL.—To-Kalon and Alpha Delta Chi always sponsor an all-school Christmas dance.

BIG BROTHERS—Alpha Delta Chi members are not only big brothers to their To-Kalon sisters but also to the children at the Tuberculosis Hospital.

Alpha Delta Chi Fraternity

From a beginning of nine charter members in 1961, Alpha Delta Chi has grown to thirty-six members.

This fraternity stresses service to the TJC student body and brotherhood among its members as its primary goals.

Each year Alpha Delta Chi and To-Kalon, its sister sorority, co-sponsor the all college Christmas dance. This year the attendance set a record with 311 students.

AΔX and T-K also sponsor an Easter egg hunt for the crippled children of Tyler. The group has also done civic work for the senior citizens at Sunset Home, and given a Valentine party at the children's ward of Tyler's tuberculosis hospital.

Through a program of public service, brotherhood, and social functions, Alpha Delta Chi supplements the academic program at TJC in preparing the young college man for a prominent position in today's America.

Student Senate:

The Student Senate is the voice of the student, the link between the student and the administration. Composed of student body officers, class officers and representatives from recognized campus organizations, the Senate works as a unit co-ordinating the different phases of college life. Taking "increased spirit" as its special project, the Senate's Campus activities included a Fall mixer, extended homecoming, Teepee entertainment programs, soc hops, and a student directory.

THEY GUIDE THE SENATE—Sponsor Mrs. Averille Greenhaw, President Vance Burnham, and Secretary Jan Godfrey were the leaders in Senate meetings and plans.

DIRECTING THE DIRECTORY—Don Dunn and Jan Godfrey work on editing and typing up the student directory. Senators sold ads, planned and typed the copy for the booklet given free in spring to the student body.

Student's Voice

CROSS SECTION OF CAMPUS ORGANIZATIONS—Among the Senators representing the more-than-twenty campus organizations are: Elaine Burgess, Anne Patterson, Carolyn Graham, Ann Streetman, Jan Godfrey, Mary Morphis, Delayne Hail, Pat McMurphy, Sponsor Averille Greenhaw, Don Dunn, Vance Burnham, Michael Dale, Mitchell Dale and Don Paschal.

A BIG JOB—Senate President Vance Burnham and Rick Hill concentrate on an allocation request brought by one of the Senators. The Senate, under the guidance of Fiscal Dean Richard Barrett, allocate some $3000 for campus activities each year.

AND THERE WAS MUSIC—The Senate proved that with a good band and enthusiastic students, a lot of decoration is only added glamour. Over 600 persons came to dance and mix at the Fall Semester Mixer.

PLANNING A DUET?—Choir members Lucinda Maples and Chris Witt practice for one of the programs given by the Singing Apaches.

Apaches

The Singing Apaches, led by Director J. W. Johnson, perform for various civic clubs during the year. They teamed up with the band and drama department at Christmas for an outstanding program. The choir is sporting new outfits this year. The girls are attired in white blazers with maroon letters and maroon skirts. The boys wear maroon blazers with white letters and black slacks.

WHO'S GOING TO LEAD OFF?—Singing Apaches Larry Wickham, Rusty Guinn, Nancy Clark, Lucinda Maples, and Chris Witt study a new piece of music for a coming program.

ACTORS, STAGE CREW, COSTUMERS, ET CETERA—Members of Las Mascaras, TJC drama club, are John Thrasher, Jerry Akers, John Williams, Sam Biscoe, Barry Williams, Frank DeBenedetto, Ken Thompson, Frank Saunders, Steve Smith, Larry Towns, Hank Cookenboo, Bruce Thorn, Stan Waghalter, Karen Garner, Barbara Chitwood, Johnnie Walker, Jackie Pietras, Darlene Franklin, Vance Burnham, Eloise Raskin, Jennie Northcutt, Sandra Coyle, Linda Young, Sandra Beleck, Patsy Stephen, Martha Emison, Judy Moores, Janice Kelsey, Paul Watts, Mike Blew and Chris Whitt.

FUN IN GALVESTON—Members of the junior class relax at the pool of the motel in Galveston where they stayed when they toured the University of Texas Medical Center.

A TEACHER IN THE KNOW—Instructor Kay Horsley joins in the fun at the Harvest Dance.

PARTY PLANNING—Students decorate for the November Harvest Dance.

Eastern School of Nursing

Texas Eastern School of Nursing provides a three-year diploma program in professional nursing. Liberal arts and science courses are taught at TJC while the nursing classes are at TESN. Clinical facilities are provided by Medical Center Hospital, Mother Frances Hospital, and the Tyler-Smith County Health Unit. Affiliations in psychiatric and pediatric nursing are offered to senior students by Brackenridge Hospital, Austin, and Austin State Hospital.

POOR FISH—Getting a dunking during freshman initiation are Cathy Parker and Linda Sutton. Judy Higgins, Sara Frank, Vicki Jensen and Jackie Snider also get in on the fun.

IT'S NOT ALL BUSINESS—Sharon Morgan, Cathy Parker, Maria Botella and Jackie Snider think refreshments are one of the nicest things about student body meetings.

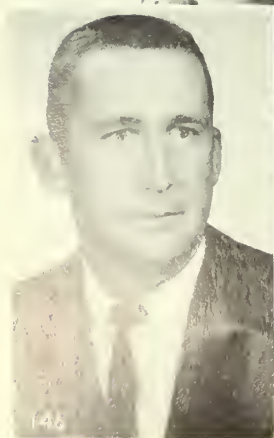

GAB SESSION—The kitchen is the perfect place for talk. Susan Brooks, Veronica Dur, Vicki Jensen, Jenny Cates, and Joan Soape chat over a cup of coffee.

CHIEF HORSE TAMERS AND GOAT TYERS—Officers of the Rodeo Club are Treasurer Belinda Williams, President Wayne Casterline, Vice-President Ray Yarbrough and Secretary Pat McMurphy.

Club

A LAZY AFTERNOON—When the weather's obliging Rodeo Club members may congregate to practice and improve their skills. Ray Yarbrough gets ready to show his skill with the bullwhip. Ronnie Farrah and Ronnie Germany "take it easy" as they await his performance.

SHOWING WHO'S BOSS—Ronnie Germany rides a bucking horse as he prepares for the first tri-college rodeo sponsored in April by TJC's Rodeo Club. Also participating were Kilgore and Henderson Junior Colleges.

RIDE 'EM COWBOY—Ronnie Germany and his "steed" take an easy ride around the arena.

IT WON'T HURT—Belinda Williams tries her hand at goat tying, one of the many spring rodeo events.

Home Economics Club

LEARNING THE SKILLS OF HOMEMAKING—Club members are (bottom to top) Carole Barnes, Kathy Ray, Susan Reed, Karen Haynes, Pat McMurphy, Pamela Miller, Pam Lindley, Altha Anderson, Sponsor Averille Greenhaw, and Mary Earle. This year the club added another project to its list as they co-sponsored a Barn Dance in the Teepee with the Rodeo Club.

SOME OF THE NICEST THINGS ABOUT COLLEGE—If you're male, that is, are pretty girls. Claridge has them in abundance. They are (top to bottom) Gay Staples, Sandy Keen, Sheila Hart, Bonnie Miller, Terri Buchanan, Chris Barbe, Suzanne Corrigan, Diane Richards, Peggy Thomas, Nancy Garland, Mary Beth Wise, Carole Hensley, Lynda Thompson, Pam Siegel, Cynthia Cashion, Janet Todd Paula Pennington, Ginny Vanlandingham, Paula Norton, Sandra Hood, Charlene Thompson, Carol Graham, Mary Anne Butler, Jody McFarland, Nancy Bowling, Pam Derrington, Kathy Bratton, Becky Earl, Peggy Doyle, Elaine Law, Cinda Maples, Carol Steffes, Dottie Campbell, Jan Meyers, Rose Ann Mitchell, Linda McGill, Susan Armentrout, Kathy Brennan, Laurie Spencer and Kathy Weatherly.

Claridge Hall

CHECKING IN—Virginia Grimmatt signs in with Mrs. Annette Reid and Mrs. Lula Mae Horton, dorm mothers.

A SPECIAL FAMILY—Coeds find that dorm life and all the extra "sisters" are a special part of college. Vaughn Hall residents are (top to bottom) Sandra Coyle, Lana Jo Wallace, Pegi Gant, Linda Panek, Linda David, Linda Copeland, Eloise Raskin, Myra Ragland, Suzi Yarbrough, Sharon Kantz, Pam Hearn, Ann Streetman, Anita Ann Lee, Peggy Sullivan, Frances Clines, Darlene Sims, Cheryl Rodgers, Mary Richardson, Elaine Burges, Carolyn Stewart, Jacke Roddy, Carolyn Carter, Nancy Edwards, Peggy Cely, Mollie O'Leary, Nancy Stephens, Cindy Landwermyer, Anita Gail Lee, Janet Blair, Janice Butt, Judy Cleveland, Sherry Jenkins, Gipsy Howard, Carol Johnson, Vicki Fant, Susie Moore, and Susan Cooper.

Lillye Mae Vaughn Hall

MOM AWAY FROM MOM—Mrs. Ethel Stokes is a supervisor at the dorm.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT—Darlene Sims, Elaine Burges and Donna Watkins find that dorm rooms are the perfect place for snacking while studying.

SHOWING THEIR SPIRIT—Maria Pouldes and Gipsy Howard work on a totem pole. The dormitory girls made the totem pole with its colorful features to display in the front of the dorm during football season.

FRIENDS + FOOD = FUN—Comfortable clothes, lots of food and people are all the ingredients needed for a real gab fest.

THEY LEAD DORM PLANS—Vaughn officers leading the various activities are Nancy Kay Stephens, chaplain; Carol Johnson, vice-president; Mary Richardson, song leader; Elaine Burges, president; and Susie Moore, secretary.

DOUBLE DUTY—Mrs. Margaret Anders, college librarian, also doubles as a supervisor at the dorm.

POISE, POSTURE, AND PERSONALITY—Sharon Russell, Sandy Price, Nancy Smith, and Cheryl Langston demonstrate these three qualities that play an important part in the making of an Apache Belle.

ALL ABOARD!—Belles board the buses for one of the many trips they have taken this year. Besides going to Athens and Kilgore with the TJC football team, the Band and Belles went to Dallas, New Orleans, Texas A&M University, Fort Hood, and Houston. They went to Miami, Florida by plane to represent the Dallas Cowboys at their playoff game against the Baltimore Colts.

A BRIEF REST—Belles pause after a routine at the Heart Bowl game.

Belles and Band in Action . . .

YOU SPLASHED ME FIRST!—Apache Belles have fun in the sun at a picnic held after summer practice.

LET'S GO, APACHES!—The Apache Band adds spirit and color to the annual pep rally on the square after the homecoming parade.

WHAT DO YOU THINK OF THAT HAND?—Band member Jim Connally does not seem too pleased with his hand as he shows it to fellow band member Nancy Edwards.

WHAT ARE WE LOOKING AT?—The Apache Belles form a pretty backdrop for the pep rally about to get under way for the traditional TJC-KILGORE homecoming game.

FORWARD MARCH!—The Apache Band marches before a near-capacity crowd in the Cotton Bowl during the halftime performance at the Dallas Cowboy-New York Giant pro football game.

PEEK-A-BOO!—The saucy Apache Belles smile over their shoulders at the crowd at the NFL pro playoff in the Orange Bowl in Miami, Florida.

Apache Band

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT—The Apache Band, under the direction of Mr. Edwin Fowler, practices hard and long in order to give the best performances possible.

SHE BLOWS THE WHISTLE ON THE BAND—Lovely and talented Apache Band Princess Pam Griggs not only does an excellent job of leading the band, but she is also an outstanding twirler.

APACHES DOWN BLINN, 12-0

The first of the two TJC scores was set up late in the second half, by, a punt reception on their own 42. With the help of Larry Tilton's fine passing, the Apaches drove deep into Blinn territory. Doug Walker scored on a right-end pitch-out from five yards out. The score ended a 58-yard drive. The next score was set up by an interception by Danny Hall on the 50 yard line. Tilton scored on a short quarter-back sneak.

Tribe places in their ninth

"On to Honor! On to Glory! On to Victory!" sing the Apaches, and the Tribe went on to all three as they came out of conference play tied for second place with Kilgore and drew a first round bye in the seven-team South Zone Regional Tournament at Kilgore Feb. 28—March 2. The Apaches won the tournament in a spectacular game with Kilgore and earned the right to meet the North Zone champion, Wharton, in a best of three play-off to determine the representative at the National Junior College Tournament in Hutchinson, Kansas. Harry Bostic, TJC player, was named most valuable player of the regional tournament.

The Apaches romped the Pioneers in the first game, 97-80, at the TJC gym. Then they went to Wharton and lost, but earned the right to go to Hutchinson by beating Wharton in Huntsville.

At Hutchinson the Apaches won two games and lost two. They nipped Casper, Wyoming 73-71; lost to Moberly, Missouri 79-64; beat Lester, Massachusetts 115-100; and lost in their last game to Chipola, Florida 80-73. This left the Apaches with a seventh place position in the national tourney. Harry Bostic was named to the All-Tournament team, and the Apaches came home to a rousing welcome as a tired group of true champions.

DO IT BETTER Electrically!

BETTER LIGHT

FOR BETTER STUDY

School home-work is usually hard enough without the burden of poor lighting conditions. Children who have proper home-study lighting have a better chance for clearer understanding and better grades.

Your electric appliance dealer has a variety of brand new "perfect light for perfect sight" home-study lamps. See him today.
